

CSL Alerts Customers to Fraudulent Websites & Emails

Hong Kong, 12 May 2009 - CSL would like to alert its customers and the general public to fraudulent emails and websites claiming that CSL has started its service provisioning in the mainland China. CSL has no affiliation whatsoever with the fraudulent websites operating under the domain names including www.hkcslmobile.com.cn, www.cnsl.com, www.cslvip.com.

CSL has no plan to provide any mobile services in the mainland at this moment. CSL's website in Hong Kong is at www.hkcsl.com. CSL operates three brands, namely 1010, one2free and New World Mobility with websites as www.1010.com.hk, www.one2free.com and www.nwmobility.com respectively. CSL would like to remind customers to ensure that they are connected to the valid CSL and its mobile brands sites before keying in any confidential personal data.

CSL has reported the fraudulent websites to the Hong Kong Police Force and OFTA. We are working with relevant authorities to shut down the fraudulent websites. CSL will take every step necessary to protect its brands.
