CSL Appoints New Chief Information Officer

Stuart McDonald to lead CSL's transformation to customer-centric IT

Hong Kong, 28 November 2011 – CSL Limited (CSL) today announced the appointment of Stuart McDonald as the company's chief information officer.

In this role, McDonald will lead CSL's information technology department in the development, acquisition and integration of IT systems supporting all of CSL's business functions. He will also be instrumental in transforming CSL to a new customer-centric IT system that underpins the company's business strategy for the next three years.

Prior to joining CSL, McDonald was Head of Program Delivery at Cathay Pacific Airways, in charge of business transformation projects. Before Cathay Pacific, he spent almost his entire career in the telecommunications industry across Australia and the Asia-Pacific region at companies including Vodafone, Singtel Optus and Macquarie Telecom.

"Stuart is a seasoned transformation leader with extensive experience in impacting enterprise bottom line and performance through aligning technology with corporate vision and management of corporate operations," said Joseph O'Konek, Chief Executive Officer, CSL Limited. "Stuart's extensive expertise will be instrumental in delivering CSL's focus on customer centricity. I am delighted to welcome such an experienced and knowledgeable professional to the CSL team."
