one2free Launches Next G Pocket Wi-Fi from $87 on Hong Kong's fastest mobile broadband network

Hong Kong, 30 May 2011 – With more people carrying multiple mobile devices, one2free has launched the one2free Pocket Wi-Fi service plan on Hong Kong's fastest mobile broadband network. Creating a personal mobile Wi-Fi hotspot, one2free Next G Pocket Wi-Fi will allow users to link to Hong Kong's fastest broadband network and enjoy download speeds up to 1.7 times¹ faster than other networks from a range of different devices, including tablets, netbooks and game consoles.

The new service plan from one2free, reinforces its multi-device, multi-service, multi-user approach. It caters to the needs of people and families who want to stay connected on the go. Now, consumers can enjoy smooth HD video, bandwidth-hungry interactive games, or their favourite social networking sites.

Allowing simultaneous access to up to five Wi-Fi-capable devices, including tablets, smartphones, games consoles and cameras, one2free Next G Pocket Wi-Fi will also appeal to all those who collaborate as family, friends, groups or enjoy multi-player gaming. To facilitate data sharing and storage, the Next G Pocket Wi-Fi provides a built-in microSD™ card with up to 32GB memory.

Using one2free Pocket Wi-Fi service plan, users pay just HK$187 for 5GB of data, delivered at a speed of up to 7.2 Mbps over a super-fast UMTS 900 broadband network.
