Rules for CSL Data Analytics Case Competition

Participants of the Case Competition are required to adhere the following rules. Team or any team member who fails to comply with the rules may be disqualified.

General

- Each team must have FOUR members.
- Each team must appoint a team leader.
- Each team should choose a team name.
- All teams and participants must use English in the writing of the whitepaper, presentation, and other materials to be submitted online.
- If disputes occur, decision of CSL shall be final.

Submission of Work

- Each team must use the required file types in the submission of whitepaper, program code, output, data and presentation slide.
- Each team must follow the basic requirements and content requirements for the whitepaper.
- Each team must submit the whitepaper, program code, output, data and presentation slide in their respective required formats and put them in ONE zipped file (Zip, RAR or 7z).
- Each team must provide a google link of their submission online.
- No change of work is allowed after submission deadline. [*Note: Do NOT remove the documents until a confirmation email is received.]
- Any team cannot meet the submission deadline for their work is considered to withdraw from the competition.

Pitch and Award Ceremony

- All participants must attend the presentations by other teams and the award ceremony.
- Under extenuating circumstances, if any team member is unable to attend the pitch and award ceremony, the team should report to event organizers and seek approval from event organizers to continue the competition; however, at least one member of the team must be present at the pitch and award ceremony.
- All participants are required to dress business formal at the pitch and award ceremony day.